LENT ..

We are so excited to be hosting all our Lent and Easter services and events in-person at Bethany this year. Masks are optional. We promise you will be greeted by friendly faces and receive a warm welcome from people who are very glad to see your smiling face. If you haven't returned to Bethany yet, make a commitment to come back beginning Palm Sunday. And invite friends and family to join you! Our services begin at 9:30 am.

On Palm Sunday, smile as our children parade through the sanctuary waving their palm branches. Enjoy hearing the Easter Choir sing a joyous song. And then join us immediately after the worship service for a potluck brunch in the fellowship hall.

Maundy Thursday, we invite you to join us for a short, but meaningful service at 7 pm where we will share communion with our church family as Jesus did with his disciples.

And then on Easter Sunday, we will come together to celebrate the resurrection of our Lord and Savior. There will be special music, Children's Church and an Easter Egg Hunt for children after the worship service. We invite you to stay and enjoy watching our children hunt eggs on the church lawn and enjoy some refreshments in the fellowship hall.

Krisalyn Mooney has graciously agreed to take family or individual pictures after the Easter Sunday worship service. This is a good opportunity to have an updated picture taken for the new edition of the church picture directory, which should be available early June. If you miss having your picture taken Easter Sunday, please email a picture of your family taken outside to Cindy Kite in the church office at office.bethany@gmail.com.

It's Almost Time to Mow ...

Are you tired of being cooped up in the house? Would you like to get outside in the fresh air? Do you like the smell of fresh cut grass? If you answered yes to any of these questions, have we got the perfect opportunity for you to serve at Bethany.

The Trustees are still in need of volunteers to mow the church lawn this summer ... yes, it's that time of year! The easiest thing, if you're interested, is to sign up for an entire month from April through October. We have volunteers for April, May, June and August ... thank you! We are still in need of volunteers for the months of July, September and October. If you need a break or can't make it a week, we will have volunteers ready to assist you.

The church has it's own zero-turn mower and you will be reimbursed for any gas you need to provide for the mower. And you can mow at any time, any day of the week ... with the exception of course, Sunday mornings!

If you would be willing to help out this summer, please contact Cindy at the church office (office.bethany@gmail.com or 540-234-8880) to sign up. If you have any questions, please contact Scott Williams.

We also need people to volunteer to be a fill-in when needed!!

Please consider helping to keep our church beautiful and inviting for members and visitors.

Missions Update

by Lori Mooney

April is springtime. Happy Easter to everyone this month. JESUS HAS RISEN.

Thank you for all donations on Ash Wednesday to complete the action packs for Voice of the Martyrs group. Those were shipped out and well on their way.

We will be accepting shoes for Soles4Souls until Easter Sunday. Any used shoes are acceptable to donate to this group. We have sent shoes to this group before, and it is a great organization. So, if you have some used shoes and you want to get rid of them, please donate for this great cause. This gives you a reason to get you a new pair and donate your used ones. Clean out those closets and let's see how many pairs our church can donate. 50, 100, 150, or 200?

Only time will tell. Ask friends and family members if they would be willing to help. Thank you for all the donations. No matter what number we come up with in the end, we are helping others out and that is what missions is all about.

Our next gathering of materials will be items to make hygiene kits for Annual Conference. Be on the lookout for information about putting these together and they will be due to the church by Memorial Day weekend. Thank you for these donations.

I am pleased to announce that I will still take items to Embrace. After my last drop off with Jenelle, I decided there is no way that we can just stop donating used clothing to them. So, if you have any clothing that you want to get rid of and it has no stains or rips, please label it with EMBRACE and leave in the social hall.

Any questions, please ask me. If you know of anyone that needs help, please let me or anyone on Missions know about it.

Mission Spotlight for the month: First Step in Harrisonburg. For over 40 years, First Step has been committed to providing free and confidential services to survivors of intimate partner or relationship violence who have experienced economic, physical, sexual, psychological, emotional, and/or verbal abuse, including but not limited to controlling behavior, isolation, threats, intimidation, gaslighting, stalking, and dating violence. These are hard things to talk about, but they are out there in this world and we need to help those that need help.

Thoughts from a Member by Julie Ritchie

I'M A BIG FOOL

I'm sorry for the way I acted

I feel terrible and I hope it's not too late to make things up with you. Please accept my apology.

Dearest Father, Son and Holy Spirit,

I am sorry, I don't feel it enough. I don't feel it enough. I have a lot of excuses for why I don't feel it; half a world away, desensitized because something awful is happening somewhere all the time, busy, distracted. I remember studying History when Hitler was on his rampage, and so many times since then, how can so much of the world just go on living as if nothing is going on, and yet here I am. Selfish bullies running amuck, selfish individuals waste the precious resources you have provided and trash this planet and Your children, I am one of them, - a gift from You to us and we stomp on it like an insulate child not appreciating the gift for what it is, we want more. I am sorry. I AM sorry.

You are my God my salvation, THE ROCK of my foundation, my role model, my hero, my Path, my Light, my Everything and yet here I am. I want to hear You, I want to follow You, well mostly ... I want to show your Love to Your People, I want to be "your hands and feet."

Easter, to me, is accepting Your Love, Your Light, Your forgiveness even when I do not deserve them. It is accepting that you created me as I am for a purpose that sometimes only You can know. To be armed with Your Love and Your Light and ready at a moment's notice, always watching, listening for Your Call. It is following Your "Still Small Voice" when it calls to me, leaving behind my plans when they do not line up with Yours. Easter is a reminder that You gave everything because you wanted me to have the freedom to make mistakes, not be enough and still through You to have access to that Highest Power, the Love that surpasses all Love, pick up the pieces and try, try again. My Easter egg is cracked, the colors are less vibrant and organized that I would like but there is an energy, visible most strongly through those cracks, that tells of an Amazing Kind of Love.

Where have you seen The Easter Love this season?

Decorate a hard boiled egg or blown egg

to show what Easter means to you! Write a sentence or two describing how your egg reflects your spiritual connection to Christ's resurrection (where do you see Christ). Bring your egg on Easter Sunday and place it along with your note on a designated table in the foyer.

Help us make this "eggceptional" exhibit on Easter morning by adding your Easter testimony! Take a look at the examples already in the foyer!

Financial Update

by Cindy Kite

Spring has arrived in the Valley, although some days ole man winter just doesn't want to let go! Despite some cold days, you can see signs of spring everywhere you look ... blooming flowers, budding trees, green lawns. I always look forward to spring and those warmer days full of sunshine and the promise that summer is on the way. However, we have get through the cold winds and rain of March first. April then brings the promise of warmer days. I always feel spring is a time of promise, of renewal, of new beginnings. A time to reflect on how Jesus took our sins to the grave with him and gave us a new life full of promise.

As I'm sitting here writing this article, looking at numbers, I'm praying to God to give me the words to share with my Bethany family. Positive words, not a negative report. And the song by Anne Wilson "My Jesus" comes on the radio. There's a verse in that songs that goes like this ...

*He makes a way where there ain't no way
Rises up from an empty grave
Ain't no sinner that He can't save
Let me tell you 'bout my Jesus
His love is strong and His grace is free
And the good news is I know that He*

The moment was bittersweet
when the bunny realized
Easter was not about him.

March 22, 2022 - Week 12
Budget	224,216.00
Where We Should Be		47,430.35
Where We Are		33,378.72
Deficit of		(14,051.63)
Net Percentage		-29.6%
Expenses as of 3/22/22		30,470.95

*Can do for you what He's done for me
Let me tell you 'bout my Jesus
And let my Jesus change your life*

That's all I need to say to my Bethany family! Jesus makes a way when we can't see a way. His love is strong and His grace is free. And that's all I need to remember when I'm posting giving and writing checks. Jesus has provided the way for Bethany to survive and, not flourish, but do well during the past two years. As I reflect on new beginnings, God's love, grace and sacrifice, I know we'll be okay. Again, we may not flourish, but we will survive! So, "let me tell you 'bout my Jesus and let my Jesus change your life." He raised up from that empty grave just for you and me! He will provide for us. All will be well. Please continue to love and provide for your church! We are starting out slow but hey, "let me tell you 'bout my Jesus."

Please continue to donate eggs and candy for all our Easter Egg Hunts!
We are also in need of help
on Saturday, April 16
for the Community egg hunt.
Please see the sign-up sheet in the foyer and sign up to help!
It's that simple and its only for a few hours!
Thanks in advance!
